of Love,

Play on...

*Give me excess of it, that, surfeiting, The appetite may sicken, and so die. That strain again!
it had a dying fall: O, it came o'er my ear like the sweet sound, That breathes upon a bank of violets, Stealing and giving odour! Enough; no more: 'Tis not so sweet now as it was before.
O spirit of love! how quick and fresh art thou, That, notwithstanding thy capacity, Receivest as the sea, nought enters there, Of what validity and pitch so'er, But falls into abatement and low price, Even in a minute: so full of shapes is fancy, That it alone is high fantastical.*
